ORDERING/SHIPPING INFORMATION

BUNN® ships all orders for stock items included in the Dealer Net Prices as quickly as possible. Due to current market conditions, some stock items may take several weeks to ship due to current availability. Also, some stock items maybe reclassified as "non stock" and therefore may require additional production time. Customer service can provide the current target ship dates upon placing an order.

In order to better provide you with this enhanced service, BUNN requests that customers re-verify all product numbers, order quantities, and ship-to addresses before submitting orders. Orders for immediate shipment cannot be changed once they are entered into the BUNN system. Pricing and product availability is subject to change without notice. BUNN is not responsible for typographical errors in pricing.

Note: For coffee brewing equipment - Cord sets are not included for models of 20 amps or greater unless otherwise indicated.
